Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina on June 19, 2003 granting PACE's motion for relief from the automatic stay.

Also, Defendant Nathu Puri clarifies that he engaged in the computation in accordance with the Court's Order and formula and on the understanding that such computations were based upon the Court's rulings as to liability and Defendants' good-faith defenses. However, he only engaged in such computations subject to full reservation of rights, without any prejudice whatsoever, to pursue any and all appellate issues presented in this case by the Court's rulings and decision in this matter. However, should an appeal of the underlying rulings by the trial court by Nathu Puri fail, thereby requiring payment of damages as ordered by the trial court, including pre-judgment interest, he agrees not to dispute the computation damages and pre-judgment interest agreed to by the Parties as set forth herein.
